

Happy Mothers Day!

God made a wonderful mother; a mother who never grows old.

He made her smile of the sunshine and molded her heart of pure gold.

In her eyes, He placed bright shining stars. In her cheeks, fair roses you see.

God made a wonderful mother; and He gave that dear mother to me.

FROM FR. TUAN

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Mothers Day to all of the Mothers, Grandmothers, Godmothers, and Mother-figures in our lives! May God bless all of you today and everyday of your life. May you continue to bless us with your shining example of love.

What is a mother? Two enterprising reporters, Joan Scobey and Lee Parr McGrath, decided to ask the experts: children. In their book, "What Is a Mother?", they report:

- ◆ A mother is the only one, if she sings your favorite song, it stops thundering-Louise.
- ◆ Mothers are wonderful! She spends all her time on you. A mother is just like God, except God is better-Laura.
- ◆ It is lucky that we have a mother because if we did not have a mother everything would be in a big, big mess-Fred.

 Here is a joke for Mother's day! *****

"I've got good news for you," a father said to his little girl. "God has just sent you a baby brother." "Great!" she exclaimed. "Where's Mom? I can't wait to tell her."

Here is a story for Mother's day:

Tom rented an ocean cottage for a two-week vacation. Before driving to the beach with his wife, he made a solemn promise to himself that for the next two weeks he would be the kind of husband that he knew he could be and should be. And so he began.

For two weeks he didn't call his office. For two weeks he was thoughtful. For two weeks he was loving and caring. Only one thing went wrong on that vacation. And that happened on the last night.

Tom caught his wife staring at him with a deeply concerned look on her face. He looked at her and said, "Honey, what in the world is wrong?" Tears rolled down her cheeks as she said, "Do you know something I don't know?"

"What do you mean?" he responded. "Well," she said, "last week I went to the doctor for a checkup. You've been so kind to me, Tom. Tell me the truth. Did he tell you something about me? Did he say I had cancer? Did he say I'm going to die? Is that why you've been so good to me, Tom?"

It took a full minute for her remarks to sink in. Then Tom broke into a laugh. Throwing his arms around his wife, he said, "No, honey, you're not going to die. It's just that I'm just starting to live."

Love and Prayers,

Fr. Tuan

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Dear RE Families,

Unfortunately, we do not have much to report on next year's RE classes. We are still waiting on the Diocese to make their call on what we can and cannot do. We are still hoping to go back to in-person classes. The diocese as well as St. Mary's has your child's and your safety at the forefront of our concern.

As soon as we hear of their plans, we will publish it. Please watch for registration details through your email, our website, Facebook and weekly bulletin for updates as they progress. We may have to move some days and times around to make sure we can accommodate as many children as possible.

God Bless,

Deacon Fred Ban

Saint of the Week

Saint Philip

Philip was born in Bethsaida, Galilee. He may have been a disciple of John the Baptist and is mentioned as one of the Apostles in the lists of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and in Acts. Aside from the lists, he is mentioned only in John in the New Testament. He was called by Jesus Himself and brought Nathanael to Christ. Philip was present at the miracle of the loaves and fishes, when he engaged in a brief dialogue with the Lord, and was the Apostle approached by the Hellenistic Jews from Bethsaida to introduce them to Jesus. Just before the Passion, Jesus answered Philip's query to show them the Father, but no further mention of Philip is made in the New Testament beyond his listing among the Apostles awaiting the Holy Spirit in the Upper Room. According to tradition he preached in Greece and was crucified upside down at Hierapolis under Emperor Domitian. His feast day is May 3.

The Synoptic Gospels list Philip as one of the apostles. The Gospel of John recounts Philip's calling as a disciple of Jesus.[Jn 1:43] Philip is described as a disciple from the city of Bethsaida, and the evangelist connects him with Andrew and Peter, who were from the same town. He also was among those surrounding John the Baptist when the latter first pointed out Jesus as the Lamb of God. It was Philip who first introduced Nathanael (sometimes identified with Bartholomew) to Jesus.[3] According to Butler, Philip was among those attending the wedding at Cana.

Question of the Week

With First Holy Communion coming up, we have been asked.

My parish does not give the sacrament of confession to children until two years after they have received First Communion. I have heard that this is in violation of what Rome says, but my priest says otherwise. Who is right?

You are. The 1983 Code of Canon Law says, "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (CIC 914).

Cutting out the opening words relevant to parents, the canon says, "It is the responsibility. . . of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason. . . are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (CIC 914).

Your priest has a responsibility under the Code of Canon Law to see that the children of your parish are given the instruction and opportunity for sacramental confession prior to their reception of First Communion.

The importance of this has been re-emphasized by the Vatican in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "Children must go to the sacrament of penance before receiving Holy Communion for the first time" (CCC 1457). If your parish does not supply its children with the instruction and opportunity for confession prior to First Communion, it is in violation of the Vatican's directives.
